

North by Northwest

Starting on Sunday, January 15, 2017 leaving from Super 8 Airport 11110 NE Holman Avenue, the luxury coach will whisk you off to the next several days of sightseeing and four (4) WHL games.

We will stop in Chehalis for a snack before heading to an early dinner (included) at the Golden Corral in Marysville, Washington. We then head North and a bit east to Sumas, Washington and the border. Grab your libations at the Duty Free Store for the next few days. Next morning we grab breakfast and then head a bit further east to Hope and then north up the Trans-Canada Highway. Get your cameras ready for the trip through the historic Fraser Canyon. Small towns hug the highway as we pass through the seven tunnels through the twists and turns of Highway 1 the mighty Fraser River and mountain views. You might see a mountain lion or bighorn sheep along the way. We'll grab some lunch in Cache Creek and then head another couple hours north to Williams Lake, British Columbia where we will relax for the night. Boston's Pizza is at the hotel if you're looking for dinner.

The next day, breakfast (included) awaits you and then it's a couple hour drive along Highway 97 and arriving at our first hockey destination, Prince George, British Columbia. We will stop in at the Visitor's InfoCentre before heading to the hotel, the Coast Inn of the North.
